

Being surrounded is not the same as being carried.

80%

say someone outside home and church knows them well.

65%

report feeling lonely or isolated at least sometimes.

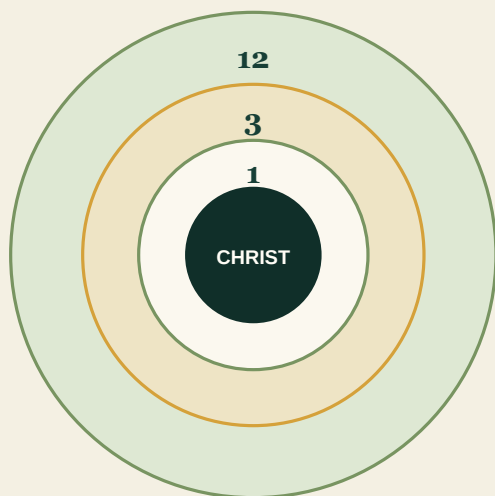

22%

receive spiritual support from peers or a mentor several times a month or more.

Being known is not always the same as being supported.

Jesus loved everyone fully. He did not give everyone the same access, assignment or responsibility.

The crowd may see what the pastor carries. The trusted few must be allowed to see what it costs.

1 / THE SOUL BENEATH THE ROLE

Before anyone sees the pastor, Christ knows the person. Abide before you lead.

JOHN 15:5

3 / THE FEW WHO KNOW THE COST

They witnessed Jesus confront death, reveal glory and carry sorrow. They saw moments the crowd did not.

MARK 5:37 / 9:2 / 14:33

12 / PEOPLE FORMED TO CARRY THE MISSION

They were with Jesus before they were sent. He shared life, truth and real responsibility.

MARK 3:14-15

Who knows the soul beneath your role?

Who has seen both the fruit and the cost? Who are you intentionally forming to carry the mission, not merely help with the work?

Different proximity is not favoritism. It is faithful stewardship.
