

Christ remains the source, and the weight was never meant to rest on one person.

Jesus loved the crowds, walked closely with the Twelve, and let three see moments the rest of the Twelve did not.

RELATIONSHIPS, NOT RANK

The numbers are a picture, not a rule. Every person has equal value. A pastor's trusted support may include peers or mentors outside the team being led. Closer relationships still need healthy accountability.

CHRIST / THE SOURCE

He holds both the leader and the ministry. Everything begins by remaining in Him.

JOHN 15:5

1 / THE SOUL BENEATH THE ROLE

Your life with Christ matters, not only the work in front of you.

1 TIMOTHY 4:16

3 / TRUSTED SUPPORT

Trusted peers or mentors see the cost, pray, speak truth and help carry what should not be carried alone.

12 / PEOPLE BEING FORMED

People are brought close enough to learn, given something real to carry and helped to grow into what God is calling them to do.

MARK 3:14-15

Put names to the circles.

Who helps you remain rooted? Who can see the cost? Who are you forming and entrusting?

Write down one name. Start there.

If a circle is empty, do not rush to fill it. Pray, then begin with one honest relationship.
