

Is This Still Serving the Calling?

1 / Why are we doing this?

Pastor, you do not have to carry this conversation alone or arrive with every answer. Bring the people who do the work and the people affected by it. With Scripture open and the Holy Spirit leading, ask honestly what should continue, what needs care, and what needs to change.

Ministry / process / system: _____

Church: _____ Date: _____

People in this conversation: _____

What we examine	Questions worth asking	What we are seeing
Purpose	Why does this exist? What biblical responsibility or real need is it serving?	_____ _____
Vision	What do we hope will be different in people's lives because of this?	_____ _____
Mission	How does this help us practice our mission - not just repeat our mission statement?	_____ _____
Christ at the center	Does the way we do this reflect Jesus' character and methods? What in Scripture supports - or challenges - our approach?	_____ _____
Fruit	What fruit and cost can we honestly point to, beyond how we feel about this ministry?	_____ _____
Honest examination	What am I hoping this review will confirm? Is our concern with the ministry's purpose or how we carry it?	_____ _____
Hidden cost	Who is carrying more than we realize? What does this require in time, money, relationships, and strength?	_____ _____
Hard conversations	Whose experience have we not heard? What concern have we avoided naming?	_____ _____

Review one ministry in an existing conversation. Use the spaces you need.

Is it life giving?

2 / Look at the people this touches.

Systems do not create life. Jesus does. Healthy systems make room for the life He is already growing.

Name direct or indirect benefit, no clear benefit, or N/A where a group does not apply.

Ministry / process / system: _____

Who it touches	Life and fruit	Cost and strain	Needed changes
Pastor Does this support faithful leadership and shared responsibility, or require the Pastor to keep rescuing it?	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____
Staff Are Staff growing and equipped to lead, with the time, authority, and support the work requires?	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____
Local Church Are people being formed, equipped, and entrusted, or simply filling gaps?	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____
Community Have we listened? Are people receiving real help, dignity, and opportunities to encounter Jesus?	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____
World (Missions) Does this strengthen prayer, generosity, partnership, or service beyond our community?	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____

There is no passing score. A focused ministry can be faithful, and life-giving does not mean effortless.

Name harm honestly, even when others benefit. Consider this ministry's calling and the church's work as a whole.

What will we do next?

3 / Choose a faithful next step.

With Scripture open and the Holy Spirit leading, decide together what should change and how you will carry it. Choose one step you can put into practice and review.

Ministry / process / system: _____

- ☐ Strengthen
- ☐ Share
- ☐ Simplify
- ☐ Redesign
- ☐ Pause
- ☐ Release

What did we decide, and why?	_____
What is our one next faithful step?	_____ _____
Who will carry it?	_____
What authority, training, resources, and support will they need?	_____ _____
What biblical responsibility must remain, even if we change how we carry it?	_____ _____
What can we stop, simplify, or share before asking anyone to carry something new?	_____ _____
How will we know it is helping? Notice both fruit and cost. Listen to the people involved.	_____ _____
When will we review it, and who will be there?	_____

You do not have to repair every system at once. Begin with one supported step toward a healthier, more balanced load, and return to learn together.
